CCC JC Float in the 1970 Arkalalah parade.

ACTIVITIES

After the first snow of the winter, snowballs began to fly in front of the school.

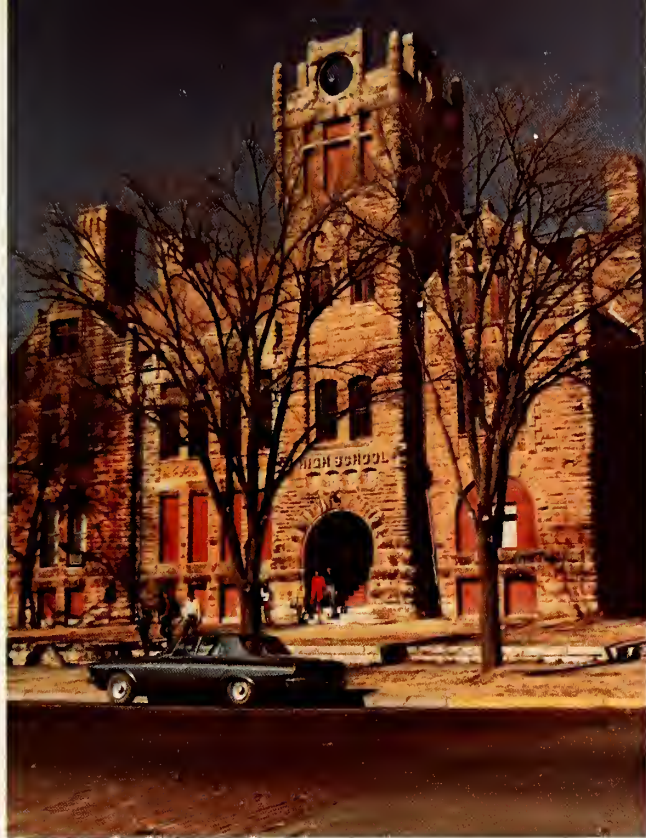

SYNOPSIS OF 1970-1971

As the leaves of early autumn began to fall, the girls gathered to watch the guys play football.

Students watch TV in the Juco lounge.

Students are leaving their Social Science classes in the old "rec" building.

Students in Mr. Day's 2:00 Biology class are working hard to finish a lab assignment on leaves.

A large crowd gathered to cheer the "orange and black" on January 9.

1970 FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

Janis Wood, a Sophomore, is from Ralston, Oklahoma.

During her Freshman year at CCCJC, she was a candidate for Football and Basketball Queen. And as a Sophomore, Janis was Representative of Student Government Association for the Sophomore class. Also she served as a cheerleader and member of the Girls' Basketball Team both years.

After graduating from Juco, she plans to attend Emporia State Teachers College and possibly major in Physical Education.

October 10 was the date set for the 1970 Football Homecoming.

At half-time ceremonies, Janis Wood, escorted by David Reinkemeyer, was crowned Homecoming Queen.

The Tigers defeated the Butler County Grizzley Bears 21-14. But the climax of the game came when defensive end, Lynn Graham, intercepted a pass. He ran 67 yards to the Bears 18 yard line, which resulted in the Tigers' winning touch down.

Queen Janis and escort David Reinkemeyer.

Serving as attendants were Sondra Dorsey, Mary Blatchford, Cathy Bay, Queen Janis, Janet Weston, Wilma Schulz, and Marsha Kreyer.

Queen Janis reigns over dance.

Entertainment was provided by a group from Ark. City, known as "The Sly and Wicked." Their style includes various types such as Rock, Popular, Jazz, and Blues.

Many couples attended and enjoyed the dance which followed the game.

Queen Rita Blenden

ARKALALAH FESTIVITIES 1970

The Queen's float leads the 5-mile parade.

On the evening of October 30, Rita Blenden was crowned Miss Arkalalah XXXIX by Miss Dixie Weir, Arkalalah Queen XXXVIII. Attendants were Misses Cathy Bay, Linda Bradley, Melinda McIntire, and Valerie Oleson; first runner-up.

Arkalalah is an annual event which takes place during Halloween. The festivity includes a carnival, 5-mile parade, street events, talent shows, and the crowning of a queen.

Those eligible for queen candidacy were sophomore girls from CCCJC, who had carried at least 26 hours during their freshman year.

Moments after they revealed her name.

The faculty and student body voted on these girls, ten top contestants. Later the running was narrowed to the five finalists by people from the surrounding areas, faculty, and the student body.

A dinner was held for the top five finalists where they were asked to make a speech about themselves. Five judges voted on their speeches, poise, and personality.

Mr. Karl Smykil was master of ceremonies for the 1970 Coronation.

1971 WINTER SPORTS HOMECOMING

Nan Johnston is a Freshman from Arkansas City High School. She was active throughout the year as a member of the Tiger Action Club, Juco Band, and the Girls' Tennis Team. She also served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Government Association.

After graduating from Juco, Nan plans to attend Kansas State University and major in Sociology.

The Winter Sports Homecoming was held January 22, 1971 with the Tigers challenging the Dodge City Conquistadors. Unfortunately the Tigers were defeated 83-71. During halftime Nan Johnston, escorted by Dennis Schmidt, was crowned. Following the basketball game, a dance was held in the Junior College auditorium.

Mr. Day cut the watermelon for the feed.

Annual Watermelon Feed Is Held

On September 3 the annual watermelon feed was held in the faculty parking lot. The idea for such an occasion arose several years ago when Dr. Johnson, former dean of the college, felt that an activity was needed to help new students get acquainted.

Over one hundred students and faculty members attended the social event. Unfortunately, rain forced everyone to take shelter in the machine shop.

Plans Made For New Juco

During January great efforts were made by the townspeople, students, and administration to help pass the bond issue on February 2 for the building of a new Junior College north of Arkansas City on Radio Lane and 15th Street.

Board members met January 18 to discuss the bond issue.

Janis Wood donated blood.

CCCJC Students Donate Blood

The Red Cross Blood-mobile visited Tri-CJC on Thursday December 3, 1970. The assigned quota of 85 pints was exceeded with a total donation of 114 pints of blood. 94 pints were designated for John Metcalf who attended CCCJC in 1969-1970.

Nurses aid the students.

Christmas At CCCJC

Phi Beta Lambda held a covered dish supper on December 8, 1970 for their members and guests.

The SGA held a Christmas party on December 17 for students of CCCJC.

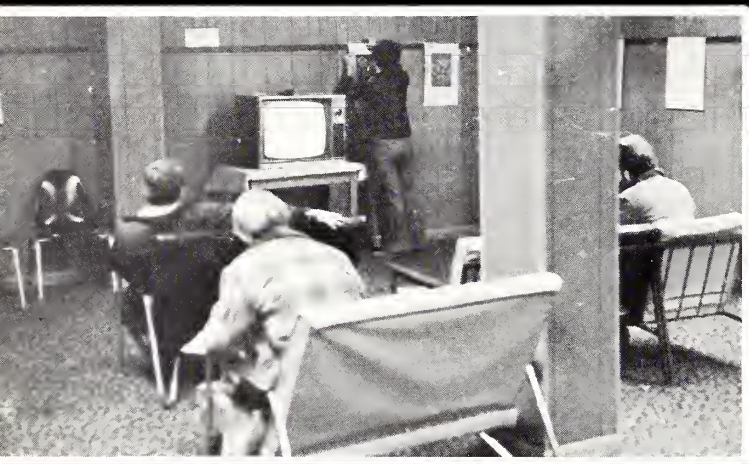

The BSE sponsored a Christmas dance on December 11 in the Junior College auditorium.

DECA sponsored a "Moonlight" bowling party December 12 for all students.

Larry seems to have something to hold the girls' attention.

Students find time to relax and watch TV in the lounge.

Larry Allred and Debbie Neitzke accept the second place award for the college float in the Arkalalah parade.

A new wall was constructed in the den to divide the recreational facilities.

A Look at 1970-1971

Nancy Johnston, Rita Blenden, Mary Kreyer, Melinda McIntire, and Jean Apple are boarding the bus for the Benton County basketball game.

Dr. Nelson talks with two of the students.

Linda Bair, president of Student Education Association, Janis Wood, a cheerleader, Carol McAdoo, editor of Tiger Tales, Larry Allred, president of Student Government Association, Paul Allen, president of Tiger Action club, and Vic McClung, president of Phi Beta Lambda, represent some of the organizations at CCCC.

FOURTH: Tom Stanley, Bill Sheridan, Vic McClung, Nan Johnston. FIFTH: Ted Hardy, Penny Patton, Debbie Neitzke. SIXTH: Alvin Brown, Traviata Morris.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association acts as the official voice of the students, determining policies and programs at the school in many areas. Its members consist of a representative from each of the two classes and from each of the school affiliated organizations.

SGA supervised many social activities at CCCC. On November 10, they sponsored the Football Homecoming dance. They were responsible for the college float in the Arkalalah Parade. Student Government held a Christmas dance for the school on December 18. Then January 22, the organization sponsored the Winter Homecoming dance.

As a special project, SGA conducted a College Show on KSOK with Larry Allred, president of SGA, announcing. The purpose of the program was to promote college activities and projects.

Student Government promoted student participation in the bond issue; they arranged for rides to the polls, babysitters, and put up posters.

Also, they promoted student donations for the blood drive on December 3, 1970.

SGA managed concessions in the "Tiger Den" and at athletic events.

PHI BETA LAMBDA

Phi Beta Lambda--FRONT: Cheryl Brown, Gloria Tsosie, Janet Ballinger, Peggy Jarboe Raymond, Sue Ehmke, Myretta Rindt, Donna Houston. SECOND: Mr. Anderson, advisor, Anita Esquivel, Roger Wineinger, Vic McClung, Vicki Shea, Jo Ann Plumer, Penny Patton, Mrs. Goehring, advisor, Miss Wilson, advisor. THIRD: Ed Griffith, Paul Branine, Steve McSpadden, Bob Shaver, Tom Boyle, Steve Rettig.

Phi Beta Lambda, a national business fraternity for college students, helps to prepare for careers in business and industry or business education. Anyone enrolled in at least 1 business course may become a member.

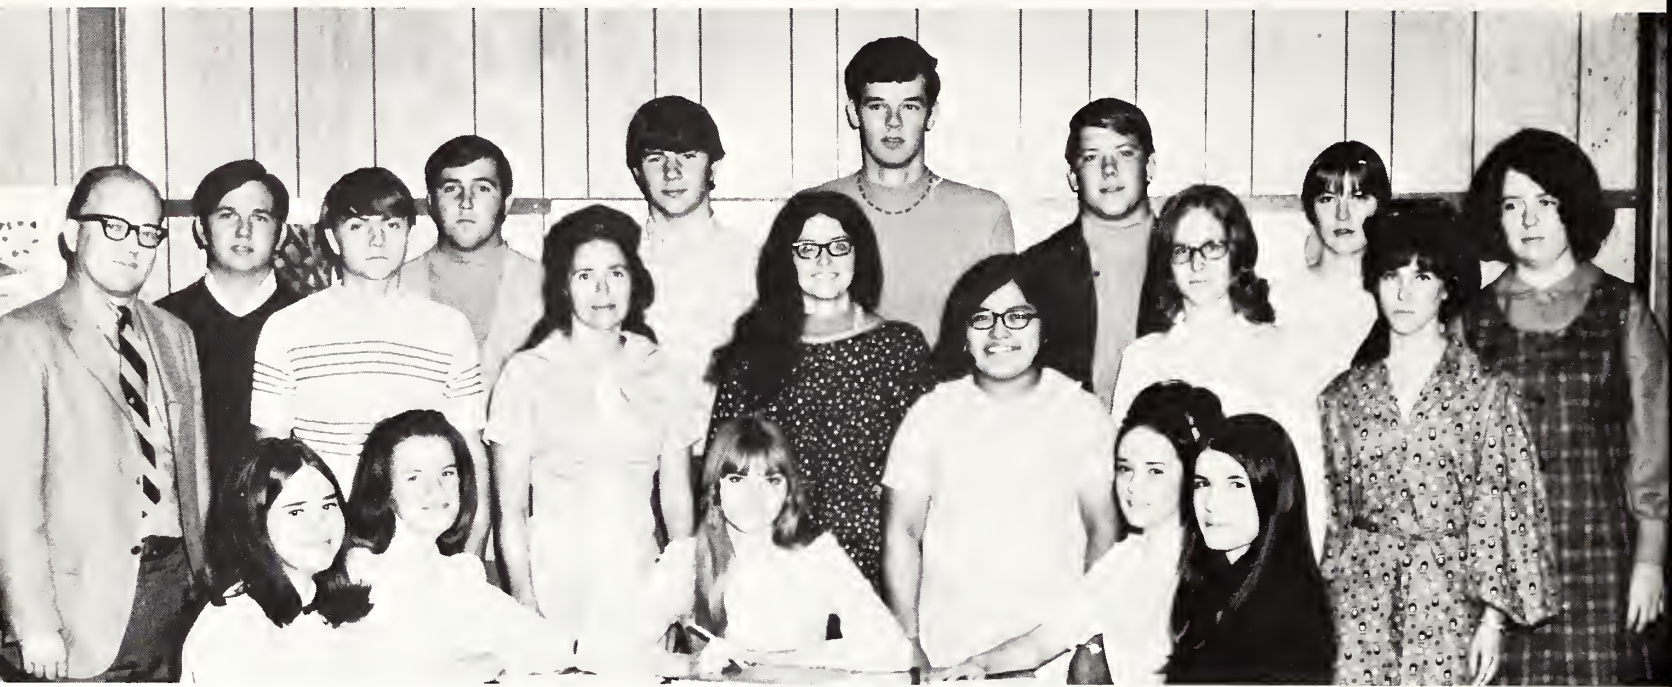

The group was started 10 years ago and is a very active organization. Phi Beta Lambda met the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month in the student lounge. On September 8 a get-acquainted picnic was held at Lion's Park. Officers were elected at the September 22 meeting and then installed October 13. A field trip to Continental Oil Company in Ponca City took place November 17.

For their Christmas party, a covered dish supper was held at the December 8 meeting. Phi Beta Lambda sponsored a "all school Dress Right Week" February 15-19. And the highlight of the year was the entering of various competitions at the State Leadership Conference held at Kansas State Teachers College in March.

Phi Beta Lambda Officers--FRONT: Gloria Tsosie, reporter, Janet Ballinger, corresponding secretary, Peggy Jarboe Raymond, vice-president, Sue Ehmke, recording secretary. BACK: Vic McClung, president, Vicki Shea, alternate student government representative, Bob Shaver, historian, Jo Ann Plumer, treasurer, Penny Patton, student government representative.

STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Student Education Association--SEATED (Officers): Deb Crain, vice-president, Barbara Alsip, secretary, Linda Bair, president, Linda Bradley, editor, Peggy Raymond, treasurer. THIRD: Kenneth May, Terry Graham, Mike Edmonson, Jim Ormsby, Mike Van Meter, LaVonna Sutherland, Karen Cover.

The Student Education Association at CCCC exists for those students who are interested in education or who would like to become a teacher. It is open to all students. The organization has been active here for 20 years.

A soup supper, held as a get-acquainted meeting, kicked off the year with meetings thereafter every second and fourth Monday of each month. In January, 3 members went to a conference in Fort Worth. And delegates were sent March 19-20 to a state convention at Kansas State Teachers College. As a special project, several members worked with the Day Care Center at the Central Christian Church.

Advisors for 1970-1971 were Miss Williams and Mr. DuChateau.

HOME ECONOMICS

Kansas Home Economics Student Association was organized in the fall of 1969 at CCCC. CCCC. Anyone taking a home economics course or interested in home economics was invited to join. Mrs. Winegarner was the advisor for 1970-1971.

On September 9, 1970 a Punch Party was held for the purpose of explaining about the Home Economics Club. New officers were installed by a candle ceremony on October 7. As a Christmas project, members brought toys, wrapped them and took them to the Day Care Center. Mrs. Baxter from McCool's Floweres gave a demonstration on Christmas floral arrangements. In February members helped with a service project for the elderly.

TIGER STAFF

Tiger staff--SEATED: Rex Beeney-photographer, Pam Rommel, Sterling Harper. STANDING: Marilyn McGehan-editor, Mike Muir, Thomas A. Newton, advisor.

The Tiger Staff was responsible for production of the yearbook. A new addition was made to the yearbook this year--colored and tinted pages.

Advisor was Mr. Thomas A. Newton. Staff members included Pam Rommel, in charge of activities section, Sterling Harper, in charge of student photos, Mike Muir, in charge of faculty, replaced second semester with Tom Stanley, and Marilyn McGehan, editor and in charge of organizational pictures.

The Tiger Staff owes thanks to Rex Beeney, Larry Allred, Mr. Marotta, and Mr. Bedwell for taking pictures used in the yearbook.

TIGER TALES STAFF

The Tiger Tales Staff in the fall semester of 1970 was headed by Carol McAdoo, student editor. The staff under Carol's leadership attempted to improve the Tiger Tales in layout design, story content, and complete news coverage. Special emphasis was placed on better feature stories, surveys and editorials.

Traviata Morris and Tom Stanley were co-editors for the spring semester. Tom Stanley was in charge of the daily Bulletin the first nine weeks and Traviata Morris assumed that duty the second nine weeks. Tom and Traviata with the help of the staff improved the design, and variety of the Tiger Tales.

The Cowley County Community College choir had a total of twenty-seven members. Anyone interested in singing could join the choir. They met the past year every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 1:00.

On November 25, the choir sang at the Thanksgiving program for the college. They also sang special numbers for the Christmas program held on December 16, 1970. In addition, members sang at the Smith Moon Company Christmas party. On the eve evening of February 15, the choir held a "Pop Concert" which was open to the public. They also sang for the college at the annual Easter assembly. Then in the spring they had a formal concert which was open to the public.

As a special activity the choir sang at schools in surrounding communities.

BAND

For 1970-1971, the CCCC band had a total of twenty members. The band is open to any student who likes to play band music. Members sat together at all football and basketball games; enthusiastically supporting the teams with their music. Also, the band played for all pep assemblies. They played for an annual concert open to the public. In addition, band members played at school in the community.

"I must protect Dauphne," said the democratic Harry Howard.

"This is what is corrupting my men," said Napoleon Markham, the villain.

FALL PLAY

The Fireman's Flame, a melodrama, was presented on November 19 and 20 in the junior college auditorium.

The play told the story of 2 rivaling branches of the fire department: the democratic Blue Bird Hose boys led by Harry Howard, Mike Van Meter, and the aristocratic Red Hearts led by the villain Napoleon Markham, Rick Boyer.

Daphne Vanderpool, Carol Brooks, foster daughter of Adolphus Vanderpool, Martin Metz, known as the "Fox of Wall Street," becomes intrigued with Harry Howard. But the villain, Napoleon, schemed to win her hand and her foster father's fortune with the help of the evil villainess, Vesta Violet, Cindy Barker. When Markham sets fire to the Vanderpool mansion, Harry and the Blue Birds arrive in time to save Dauphne and Adolphus. At this time it is found that Harry is Vanderpool's lost son.

Other members of the cast were Mike Camp, Karen Cover, David Doughten, Jacqueline Elston, Jim Graves, Marilyn Grubb, Glen Hass, Nan Johnston, Greg McQuay, Roger Miles, Traviata Morris, Sinclair Royal, Jeannie Scott, Vicki Shea, Pam Hope, Monica Smith, Keith Tolles, Jim Williams, and Sue Williams. Accompanist was Marla Johnson. Directors were Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Moncrief.

VICA

The Vocational Industrial Club of America is the newest organization at CCCC. Anyone interested in industrial work was invited to join. Its purpose is to train for leadership and to acquaint its members with different occupations. VICA met once a month. February 13, delegates were sent to a State Constitution Committee meeting at Salina. Members also went to contests in Salina and Pittsburg to test their skill within the vocational area of their interest. Mr. White was the advisor.

DECA

The Distributive Education Club, one of the newest clubs at CCCC, was organized this year, 1970-1971. Anyone majoring in business or taking business courses could become a member. Mr. Williamson was the sponsor for the previous year.

As a special project, at 7:00 A.M. on November 22, members shovelled snow off the sidewalks in front of businesses which hire DECA members.

A "Moonlight Bowl" was sponsored by the DECA for all students at the bowling alley on December 12.

Several members attended a Spring Leadership Conference at Kansas City, March 19-20. The club gave their services to the community by supporting the United Fund drive with active solicitations. To make money, DECA operated a pop machine in the south building and sold candy at Halloween.

AGRI-BUSINESS

The purpose and objectives of Agri-Business are to promote a better understanding of "Agri-Business Industries" in feeds, seeds, fertilizer, and marketing; and to assist members in selection of career goals. And to promote civic development, involvement, and citizenship of the members of the Agri-Business Association.

First-year officers are pictured; second year officers are: Ron Cannon, president, Glenn Lambert, Vice-pres., Dave Burden, secretary, Donnie Pount, treasurer. Members sponsored a steak feed for employers, a crops contest for FFA, and an exhibit for Kansas Feed and Grain Dealers Convention.

Agri-Business--SEATED(Officers): John Edwards, treasurer, Lawrence Gosselin, vice-president, Kent Nulik, president, Cecil Corder, secretary, Larry Longhorse, parliamentarian. WHO'S WHO

Thirteen sophomores at CCCJC were included in the 1971 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges."

Election to this honor from balloting of the faculty and administration of CCCJC is based upon scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and the student's promise of future usefulness.

Only students with sophomore standings are eligible for membership in "Who's Who" and the number nominated from each institution is limited by quota as established by the national headquarters office.

BLACK STUDENT ESTABLISHMENT

The Black Student Establishment, an active group at CCCJC, is open to anyone who would like to join. Its sponsors for 1970-1971 were Mr. Peery and Dr. Nelson. Organized 2 years ago, the BSE has grown to be a fairly large group.

For their Christmas party, the Black Student Establishment had a dance in the junior college auditorium on December 11, 1970. During the year they were invited to sing at the WSU Human Relations meeting as well as for other functions throughout the community. As a special project, the BSE sponsored lunches for all students each Wednesday beginning with the second semester.

and . . . OFFICERS

Tiger Action Club Officers--Paul Allen, president, Carol McAdoo, vice-president, Vic McClung, student government representative, Rita Blenden, secretary, Debra Folger, treas.

Tiger Action Club, an organization created to promote school spirit for all school functions, is the largest organization in the school. For 1970-1971, the TAC had 90 members plus 2 advisors: Mrs. Coats and Mrs. Jimison. Any student at CCCC was invited to join the club.

On September 10, 1970, the Tiger Action Club held a bonfire and pep rally for the school at Carver Field. TAC members helped with Parent's Day on October 3. During the year, the club sponsored two bus trips to out-of-town games; one to the Coffeyville football game on October 17, and the other to the basketball game January 26 at Butler County. After the Pratt Basketball game, TAC held an all school dance in the college auditorium.

To boost school spirit, members painted posters for all games. They also sold CCCJC football and basketball booster buttons. A special section was designated for all Tiger Action Club members to sit at games.

Having only been active for the last two years, the organization has grown to be an indispensable group.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders--FRONT: Pam Hope, Marsha Kreyer. SECOND: Penny Patton, Rita Blenden, Melinda McIntire. THIRD: Debbie Neitzke, Janis Wood, Peggy Henry.

The cheerleaders for 1970-1971 enthusiastically aroused spirit in the student body to support the athletic CCCC teams. Previous to several of the football and basketball games, the cheerleaders conducted pep assemblies in the college auditorium. They supported the team by attending all home games and all but one out-of-town game.

During the summer of 1970, 3 of the girls: Penny Patton; Janis Wood; and Rita Blenden attended a cheerleading camp at Sam Houston State University at Huntsville, Texas. They won 8 superior ratings and the "spirit stick" during the week they were there.

Sophomore cheerleaders were Melinda McIntire, Penny Patton, Janis Wood, and Rita Blenden. Freshmen were Pam Hope, Marsha Kreyer, Debbie Neitzke, and Peggy Henry.

Mrs. Coats and Mrs. Jimison were the advisors for the past year.

The 1970 Tiger Football Team opened the season by defeating their Alumni 16 to 0 and then were faced with what proved to be the number one team in the Kansas Jayhawk Junior College Conference and in the nation. The Tigers played Fort Scott Community College their closest game on the way to their National Championship. They were then faced with traveling to Garden City and Hutchinson to take on the 3rd and 2nd place finishers in the Conference.

The 1970 team exemplified the "never say die" Tiger spirit and fought back to win six of the last seven games for an upper division finish in the conference and a 7-4 winning season.

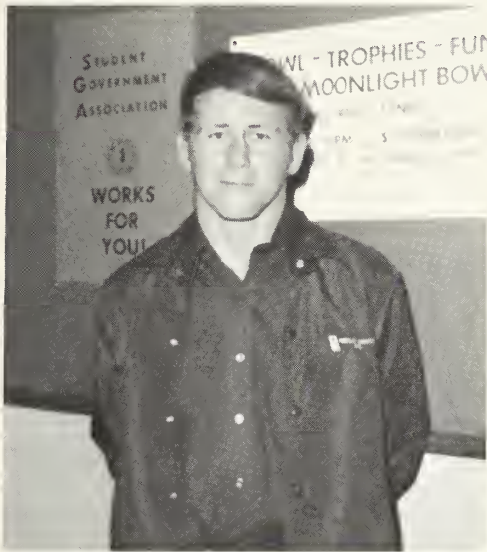

Coach Cleveland discusses next season with three returning lettermen: Greg Cales, Ray Nash, and Alan Nation.

THREE EARN GRID HONORS

Ron Wilkey was selected on the KJCC team this season. As a Freshman Ron was second in the league in individual back tackles and was an honorable mention selection. He not only led the Tigers in tackles but also led the entire league for the most tackles made by a back-116. He was also selected as an all-American safety.

Paul Allen was selected as an honorable mention lineman for his performance as center. As a freshman he was as starting end for the Tigers, but after a knee injury and surgery, he was moved to the center position.

Rick Cleveland was selected as an honorable mention back. He had many positions but was mainly used as a quarterback and flanker. In his rookie season he grabbed 17 passes for 276 yards, fifth in the conference. He was also fifth in both punt and kick-off returns and had the second highest average in the kick-off returns.

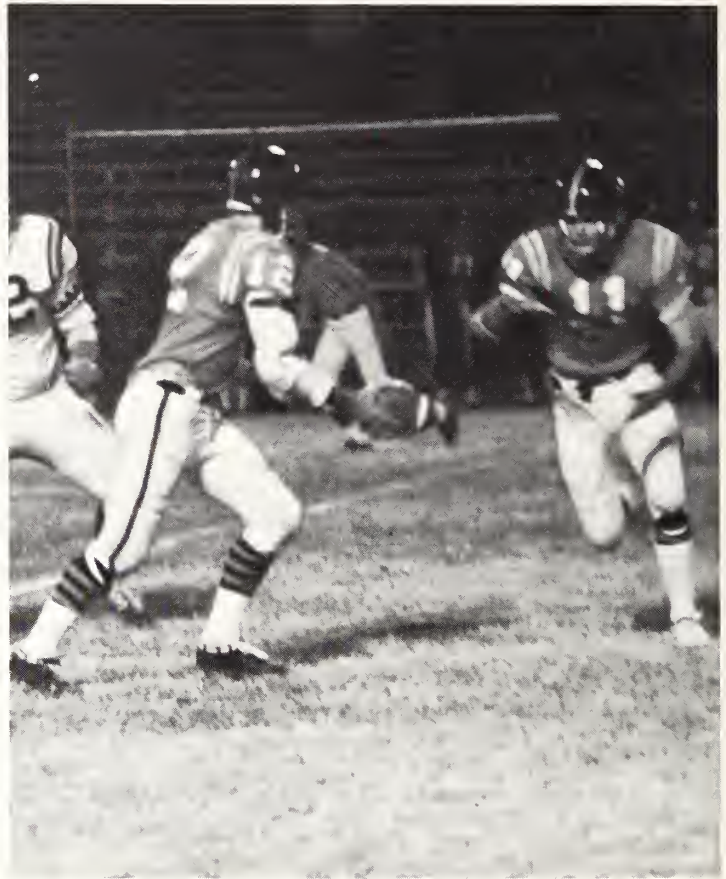

In the 10-0 victory over Coffeyville Alvin Brown (33) carries on one of his 15 attempts.

TIGERS-UPPER DIVISION TEAM

Two Tigers momentarily stop the Conqs grounds gain in the 15-13 Tiger victory.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER award was presented to Maynard Stucky, a 6'2" sophomore from Moundridge. Roy Brothers, of the athletic committee of Rodeo Key Club, sponsors, presented the award. Stucky had a 14.1 scoring mark, a 7.8 rebound mark and field goal and free throw percentages of .458 and .791 respectively.

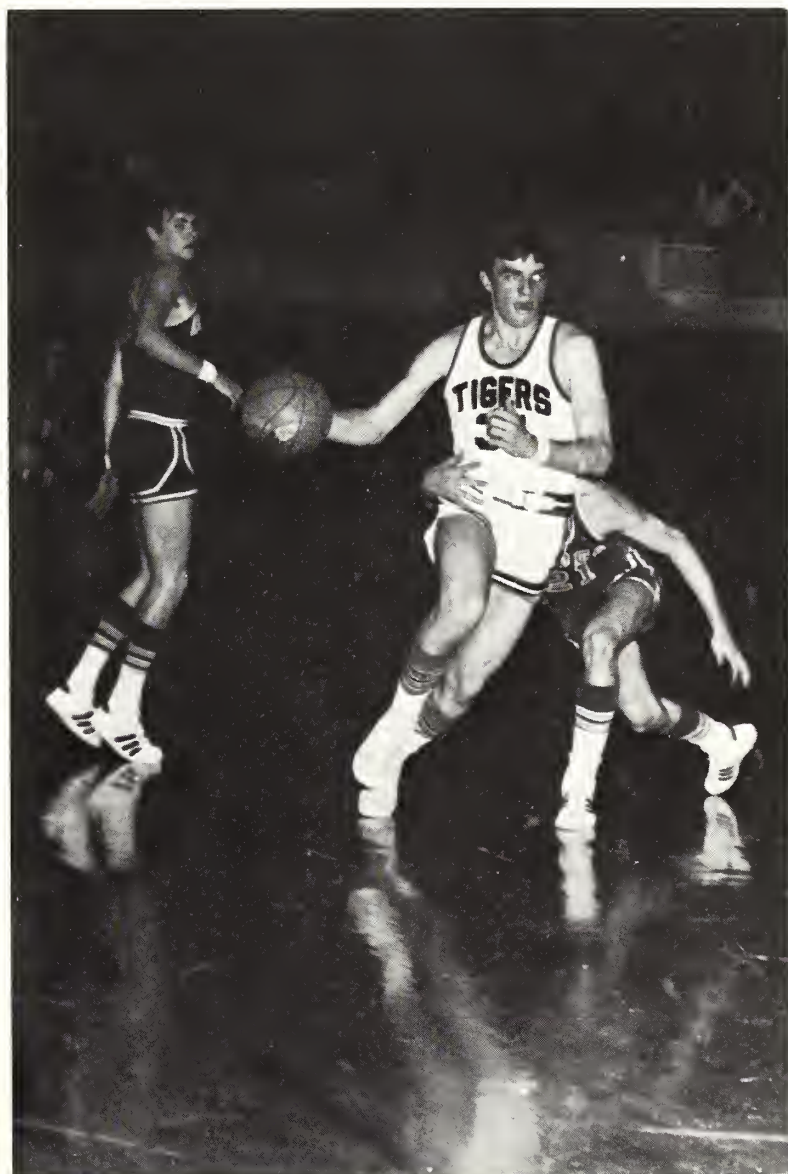

The 1970-71 basketball team, coached by Del Heidebrecht and assisted by Mike Watters, had many strong points even though they had a losing season. The squad had determination to play as hard as possible throughout the entire season. They never were behind or ahead.

Only three sophomores showed considerable action for the varsity team. First was Maynard Stucky, who gained much experience during his freshman year. Doug Ritz and Rodney Jennings came into the season with less experience, but became valuable assets to the club. Rob Gerlach, another sophomore, was kept from seeing any action because of a knee injury.

Coach Heidebrecht stated that the team showed great anticipation. Also, that he had many fine freshman who have gained lots of experience to add to next year's season.

Tom Hebb's jumping ability proves rewarding.

Letter to the Sophomores

Fellow Sophomores:

As we look back upon our sophomore year we find many events which happened in the world and close to home, that had a great bearing on us as young men and women.

First, let us remember a few happenings from our last junior college year, our sophomore year, 1970-1971. Our Tiger football team finished the season with a six win and four loss record. Ron Wilkey, the leagues leading tackler, was cited for his outstanding performance by gaining all-american recognition as well as being chosen as an all-conference defensive back.

Also in the fall another of our fellow sophomores gained recognition. During the Arkalalah celebration, Rita Blenden, was crowned Alalah XXXIX. Next came winter and along with winter came basketball season. Despite being inexperienced, our Juco roundballers showed confidence and hustled to finish with a fine season.

Pertaining to athletics, there were two disasters which saddened everyone. The events were the plane crashes of the Wichita State University football team and Marshall football team and followers. In these disasters over 100 people lost their lives.

In November, Kansas voters broke tradition by electing Robert Docking for an unprecedented 3rd term as governor.

As sophomores we have learned to make decisions and we have gained knowledge through experience. Each event in our sophomore year has had a special meaning to each of us, some more meaningful than others, according to one's own interests. Graduation brought on a feeling of completion and one of anticipation for the future and what it holds for each of us as graduates.

Paul Allen,
President of sophomore class
